Article 3 - Race Briefing & Referee Briefing

Race Briefing

The race briefing will take place the day before in the Challenge Village at the podium. All race information will be given and the organiser will answer any questions you may have. An athlete's guide will be sent to you at D-7 before the race.

Referee briefing

Competitors are required to attend the competition briefing. It will take place 10 minutes before the start of the competition, in the swimming start area.

Article 4 - Prize-giving ceremony

The presence of the winning competitors is compulsory. Otherwise, no prize can be claimed later by the absent competitor. The organiser reserves the right to dispose of the prizes as he sees fit.

Article 5 - Civil liability of the organiser

The Challenge organisation holds a "competition licence" issued by the FFTRI and is insured under the FFTRI MAÏF contract N° 4464742. It therefore benefits from civil liability cover, against the financial consequences of its civil liability, whatever the nature that may fall to it in the context of its activities. The following are insured: the organiser, its managers, its staff and its volunteers, in the context of the organisation of the event. The damage and guarantees are defined in the insurance contract available on the FFTRI website. The organiser is also covered for criminal defence and recourse following an accident. The organiser takes out two additional optional guarantees offered by the FFTRI: damage to following vehicles and following boats (damage and civil liability guarantees).

Article 6 - Guarantees granted to competitors

Competitors must be aware of the risks inherent in this type of sporting event, which requires prior training and excellent physical condition. Non-licensed FFTRI and FFTRI leisuers and managers holding a Competition Pass are covered by the civil liability policy N°4464742 of the FFTRI. The damages, guarantees and amounts are listed in the contract which can be consulted on the FFTRI website. Holders of the Competition Pass only benefit from "civil liability" cover. FFTRI licence holders with a "competition" licence also benefit from individual accident cover and "assistance" cover (organisation and payment by Mondial Assistance of the return home. Telephone: 01 49 93 80 75)

The Competition Pass will nevertheless be free of charge for the Triathlon federations of the following countries Germany, England, Belgium, Spain, Italy, Luxembourg, the Netherlands, Portugal and Switzerland. You must also provide us with a copy of your ITU licence for validation. The equipment is not covered by any federal insurance. No guarantee of

The French Triathlon Federation does not offer any personal insurance guarantee. It is up to the athlete who is licensed with a foreign triathlon federation affiliated to the ITU (if the licence of his own federation does not already cover him) to take out a personal insurance policy in his own interest, with the insurer of his choice, to cover the bodily injuries to which his sport may expose him.

Article 7 - Cancellation of the event in case of force majeure

In the event of cancellation or permanent interruption of the event for any reason beyond the control of the organisation, and, in particular, any case of force majeure, any decision of the public authorities (in particular for reasons of public health, safety or preservation of public order), any risk of bad weather or proven bad weather, the organiser will not incur any liability whatsoever with regard to the competitors and the registration fees will not be refunded. Competitors hereby waive any claim or request for reimbursement whatsoever as a result of such cancellation or interruption. If you subscribe to the Cancellation Option, 100% of the registration fee (excluding active.com fees) may be refunded. (See Article 14)

Article 8 - Image rights and CNIL

Competitors expressly authorise the competition organiser and their beneficiaries such as partners, sponsors and the media to use the animated (audiovisual) or still (photographic) images in which the competitors may appear, taken during their participation in the competition, on all existing or future media, including promotional and/or advertising and/or institutional media, throughout the world and for the longest period of time provided for by the law, regulations and treaties in force, including any extensions to this period. The participant acknowledges and accepts that the organiser is entitled to record these still and moving images (photos and videos) and agrees to their use.

CNIL: The registration form may be used for any purpose by the organiser, unless the participant expressly stipulates otherwise. The participant has the right to access and rectify any personal data concerning him/her, in accordance with the "Informatique et Liberté" law of 6 January 1978.

Article 9 - Referee

The present rules are subject to French law. Any dispute arising from or in connection with these rules shall be submitted to the FFTRI for arbitration in accordance with its rules or, failing that, to the Sports Arbitration Chamber attached to the French Olympic and Sports Committee, and shall be finally settled in accordance with its rules.

Article 10 - Registration fees

The registration fee covers only participation in the competition, to the exclusion of any transport, accommodation or meal expenses or any medical expenses, which remain the responsibility of the competitor.

Article 11 - Conditions of access to the events
